If you know Jesus, then the hand holding yours bears the calluses of a carpenter who worked with wood and carried a cross for you. When He opens His hands, you see the gnarled flesh of the nail scars. And when you think He doesn't understand your pain, realize that He has proven He loves you!

If you hate suffering, does it make sense to choose eternal suffering when God has already suffered so much to deliver you from it? In your most troubled moments, when you cry out to God, 'Why have you let this happen?'
picture the outstretched hands of Christ, forever scarred...for you.
